

Please keep the no-call list in effect. It was such an invasion of the home to have all of these unsolicited calls pouring into the house on a daily basis. I do not want people calling me that do not even know how to pronounce my name, it is harrassment.